WE ARE B'YNG RESPECTFUL, RESPONSIBLE AND KIND WHEN WE...

TAKE CARE OF

SELF

TAKE CARE OF

OTHERS

PLACE

We are pleased to share with you a new behaviour initiative that our Lord Byng community has taken on! Below you will see a picture of our new Byng Matrix. This document serves the whole-school framework that emphasizes taking care of self, taking care of others, and taking care of place. We feel that by focusing on Self, Others and Place, we are defining how we show respect, responsibility, and kindness in all facets of our lives.

Here are some examples of how we are using this language within the school setting:

1. “Hmm, are you taking care of self by giving up so easily?”
2. “Hmm, are you taking care of others by pushing through that crowd?”
3. “Hmm, are you taking care of place by writing on your desk?”

We hope that our schoolwide behaviour initiative can positively impact our school climate by establishing a common language and identifying universal goals for behaviour. And, of course, this schoolwide matrix can apply to all of our community members, so feel free to begin to use this language at home!

In addition, please feel free to discuss the matrix and our schoolwide initiative with your children at home – they’re a wealth of knowledge! We look forward to furthering this conversation in the future.

February is Black History Month

During Black History Month, people in Canada celebrate the many achievements and contributions of Black Canadians and their communities who, throughout history, have done so much to make Canada a culturally diverse, compassionate, and prosperous country.

Black Canadians and their communities have been a part of shaping Canada's heritage and identity since the arrival of Mathieu Da Costa, a navigator, and interpreter, whose presence in Canada dates back to the early 1600s.

The role of Black people and their communities in Canada has largely been ignored as a key part of Canada's history. There is little mention that some of the Loyalists who came here after the American Revolution and settled in the Maritimes were people of African descent, nor the fact that many soldiers of African descent made many sacrifices in wartime as far back as the War of 1812.

Few people in Canada are aware of the fact that African people were once enslaved in the territory that is now known as Canada, or of how those who fought enslavement helped to lay the foundation of Canada's diverse and inclusive society.

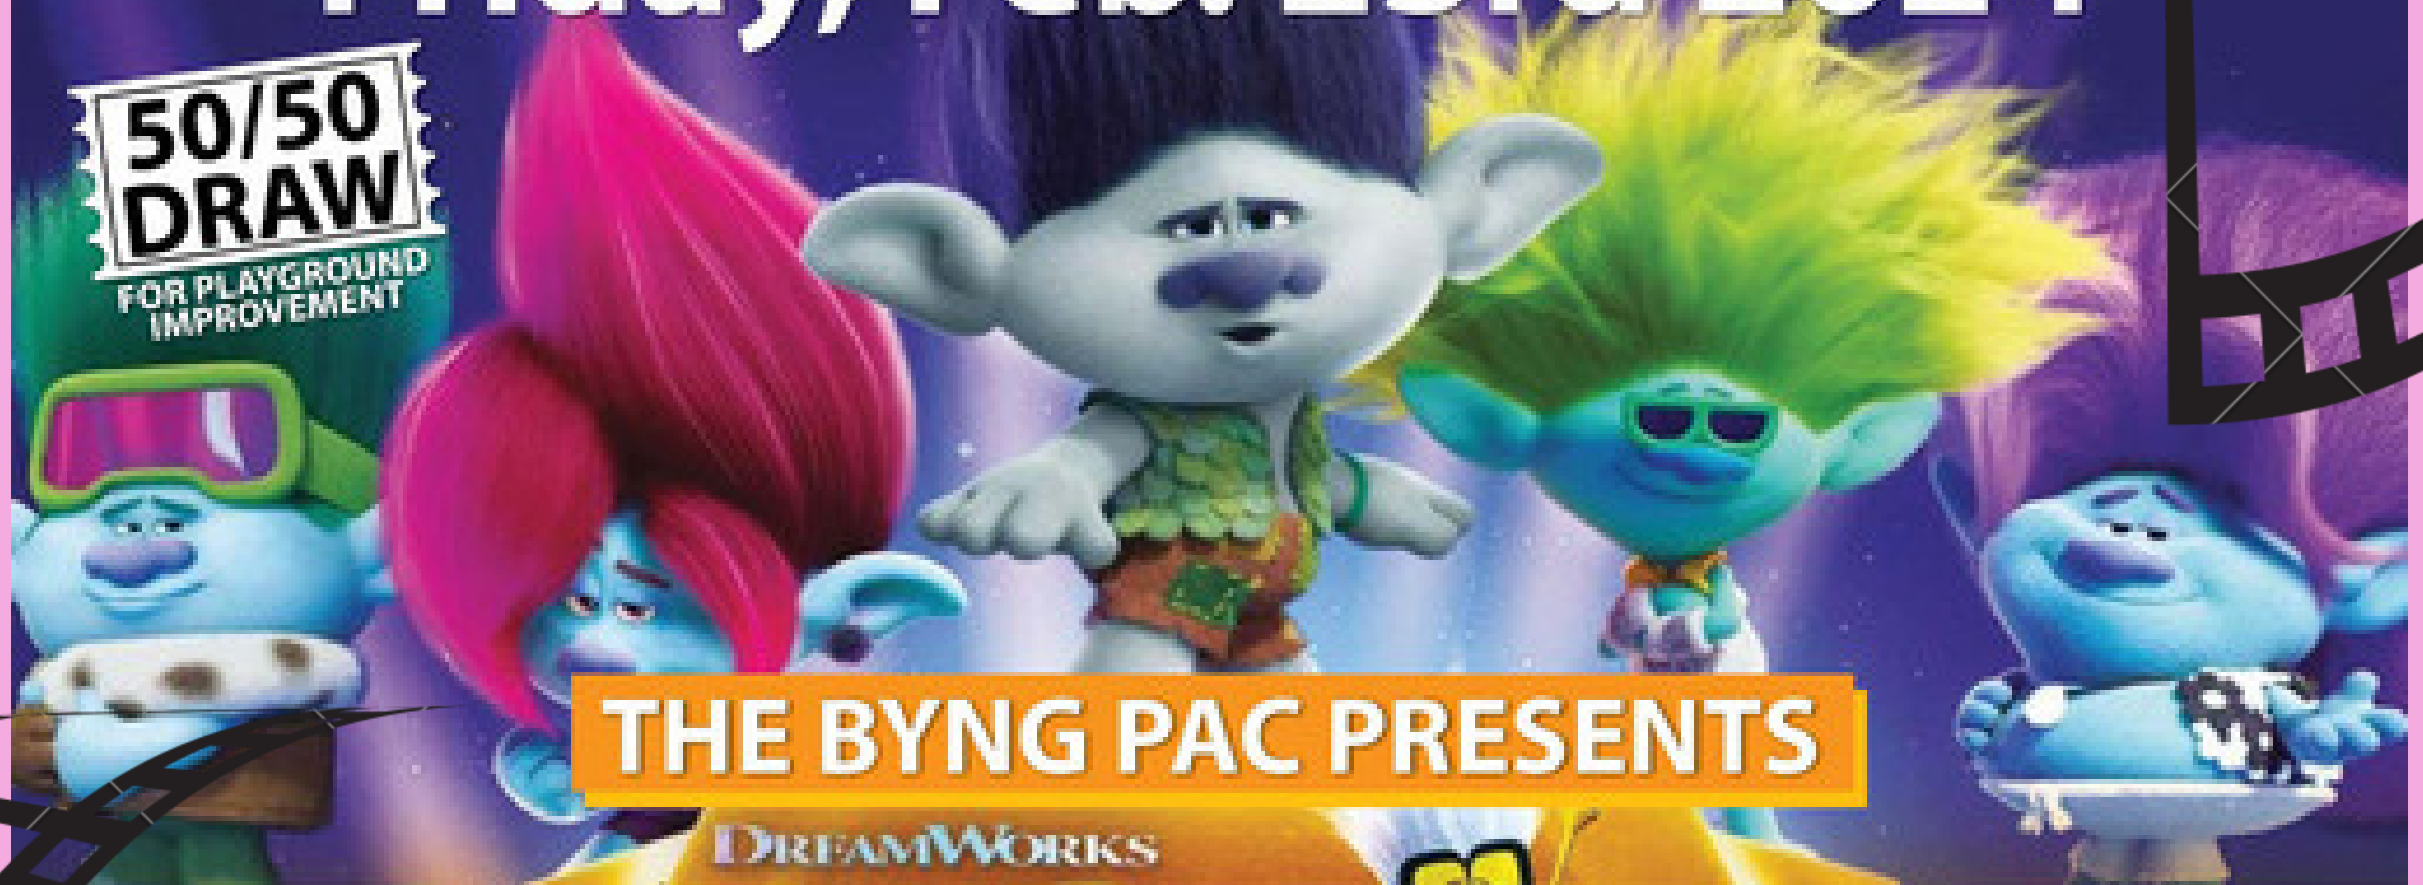

Black History Month is a time to learn more about these Canadian stories and the many other important contributions that Black Canadians and their communities have made to the history and continued growth of this country.
