Important Information:

- 1) From our Green Team: Friday November 23rd is Buy Nothing Day! This day is to encourage parents, teachers and children in the Lord Byng community to ask themselves these questions before making a purchase at any time of year: "Do I need it?" "Where is it going to end up once I am finished with it?" "What impact will it have on the environment (and our future) if I buy it?"
- 2) Bollywood – We are very excited to have Bollywood instructors joining us at Byng this week. Each day your child will be receiving a Bollywood dance class. Please be sure to send your child to school in clothing that they can move in. A water bottle is a good idea too.

As soon as the instructor provides us with a time for the Dress Rehearsal on Friday, we will email the community with the confirmed time. All classes will be in the Gym to have the chance to share and celebrate their dances with one another. There will be very limited seating available for parents and grandparents to watch during the Dress Rehearsal.

The performance for more visitors will start at 1:30pm. Since students will not be watching in the Gym, we will have more seating available but expect it to be crowded.

Thank you to our PAC for supporting Bollywood!
