Rain Boots!

Waterproof Jacket

Change of Clothes!

Pink Shirt Day began in Canada in 2007 when two students took a stand against homophobic bullying after a new Year 10 student was harassed and threatened for wearing pink. These students bought dozens of pink shirts and distributed them to their classmates to wear the next day.

February is Black History Month

When Isaac Phillips (born Jan. 11, 1896, died March 9, 1985) was awarded the Order of Canada in Canada's centennial year of 1967, it was a significant honour for the man as well as his community.

Phillips was born in dire poverty in the West Indies before coming to Canada. And while he may have a special place in Canadian history as the first black man to receive the prestigious honour, of equal significance was the role he played in showing his immigrant community of Whitney Pier – Cape Breton's historic "melting pot" – that any man, through hard work and determination, could overcome hardship and build a rich life for themselves and their families in a new land.
