September 30th is the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

On September 30, we observe the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, honouring the Survivors of residential schools, their families, and the children who never returned home. As a learning community, we reaffirm our commitment to truth, remembrance, and reconciliation with Indigenous Peoples.

This day is also known as Orange Shirt Day, this is a time for collective reflection and recognition of the message, “Every Child Matters”.
